

I am really excited to bring this news letter to you...

Out with the old and in with the New!

After 2 long years of searching, we have finally found a farm!!!! We will be announcing the Grand Opening of In-Stride Equestrian Center in May, 2011! In-Stride Equestrian Center is located at 607 Valley View Drive, Eighty Four, PA 15330. The facility offers an indoor arena (with brand new, dust free footing!) , an outdoor arena, mounting platform, 3 pastures for our horses to frolick and play, miles of trails, a new handicapped accessible bathroom, viewing room for parents and a large tack room.

We will be getting in some new horses, and bringing back some old friendly faces.

Stay tuned for additional updates. I will be posting pictures of the progress of the barn in the future.

Spotlight

This edition's Spotlight is on....
The new farm, what else?

With the new facility, we will be able to offer more time slots for handicapped riding lessons, Equine Assisted Psychotherapy (EAP), Equine Assisted Learning (EAL), sibling lessons, parent/child lessons, horsemanship lessons. Sunday lessons will still be available, as well as, evening lessons.

For information about lessons, please contact dflaherty@hotmail.com or (412) 302-5393.

As always, we can use volunteers, for interest in volunteering, please contact instride@hotmail.com.

Fundraising News

Ansys Tickets for Charity – we will again be participating in the Mylan Classic Tickets for Charity Program. You may order tickets from the fundraising tab of our website. We will receive the entire cost of your tickets. Every ticket sold and allocated to In-Stride is one more lesson for a child that may not otherwise have been able to afford to take one. What do you get for your $25 ground pass ticket? Entrance into the Mylan Classic for the entire week, clinics, special events and the concerts (Country Star Craig Morgan is expected to perform – will confirm at a later time). If you would like access to the club house, you can purchase a clubhouse ticket for $50, this gives you access to the above plus the clubhouse. There is a discount for purchasing a 10 pack of tickets.

Reflections from the director....

Busy is the name of the game right now. I wish I had some horse news to bring you, but I have been busy getting things ready for our new facility and haven't really had much horse time. Now that the days are getting longer and the weather is getting warmer, I hope to bring you tales of my adventures with China. Until next time....
